The master plan of evangelism by robert coleman.

Their world was a lot like ours. But evangelism can be difficult - even intimidating. Coleman is distinguished professor of evangelism and discipleship at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. Little more than an examination of the gospels to study Jesus' example of discipleship, this little book provides needed insight into what discipleship is and isn't in a day when the church has largely forgotten it's call to make disciples rather than converts. Coleman lays out 8 basic principles gleaned from study of the gospels: Selection, Association, Consecration, Impartation, Demonstration, Delegation, Supervision, and Reproduction. While not spell-binding, a very worthwhile read! Description It all started when Jesus called a few men to follow him and share God's message with their neighbors. Coleman looks to the Bible to find the answer to the question, What was Christ's strategy for evangelism? Chapter List (23 chapters): Coleman's classic book on discipleship (yes, that's right) is titled The Master Plan of Evangelism. Join the movement and discover how you can minister to the people God brings into your life. For more than forty years this classic study has challenged and instructed more than 1.5 million readers in reaching the world for Christ. Coleman then shows how to apply these methods to the modern church, which creates actual sustained church growth rather than simply a temporary boost in numbers. Pastors, church leaders, and those involved in teaching and discipling believers will find this book to be an invaluable resource to equip the saints, build fellowship, and grow their ministry. Robert E. Now repackaged for a new generation. The Master Plan of Evangelism is as fresh and relevant as ever. Robert E. The thesis is that Jesus' plan for evangelism was the making of mature disciples. Coleman says the answers aren't found in TV evangelism, easy-evangelism guidebooks, or the latest marketing techniques. With a foreword by Billy Graham and now repackaged for a new generation of readers, The Master Plan of Evangelism will show every Christian how to minister to the people God brings into their lives. He is the author of The Master Plan of Evangelism, which has sold more than three million copies. Through a thorough examination of the gospel accounts, Coleman points out unchanging, simple, yet profound biblical principles of how to emulate Christ to others.... Coleman offers a close examination of how Jesus made disciples and how his followers did the same throughout the book of Acts. or its affiliates Kindle — — Paperback, Abridged, May 1, 2010 $3.49 $1.44 You are God's Plan A for making disciples. There is no Plan B. When the first disciples went out into all the world to spread the gospel, they didn't just make converts—they made more disciples, people who would grow in the faith and then go out to make disciples as well. Rather, he looks to the Bible, to the ultimate example found in Jesus Christ. With all the evangelism resources available, where should you turn to find advice on how to share the Good News with others? We are called to do the same. For more than forty years this classic, biblical look at evangelism has challenged and instructed over three million readers. © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. Endorsements "Simultaneously simple and powerful, The Master Plan of Discipleship is a flat-out, no-holds-barred challenge to every Christian in every church to take seriously the 'priesthood of all believers,' and to get knee-deep in fulfilling the Great Commission." Mark Mittelberg, executive vice president, Willow Creek Association "At a time when strategizing for church life seems to have been hijacked by worldly pragmatism, it is heartening to find a book that presents an eminently practical strategy that derives from the Bible along with the combination of inspiration and scholarship that we have come to expect from Robert Coleman." Ajith Fernando, national director, Youth for Christ/Sri Lanka The Author Instead of drawing on the latest popular fad or the newest selling technique, Robert E. It was filled with skeptics, idolatry, and opposition, but also with hurting people whom God had already prepared to hear, learn, and be transformed. In the pattern of his bestselling book The Master Plan of Evangelism, author Robert E. He also served as dean of the Billy Graham International Schools of Evangelism as well as director of the Billy Graham Center Institute of Evangelism at Wheaton College.
